

SCHOOL SPIRIT

How do SMS girls show their pride?

BECAUSE SMS IS NAMED FOR A
SCOTTISH QUEEN,
OUR MASCOT IS THE SCOTTY DOG.

STAND UP AND HOLLER. Wear blue and grey ribbons in your hair. Give tours to girls who are thinking about coming to SMS. Say our school prayer. Sing our school song. And score! Cry when you get your school ring and never take it off. Decorate your dorm room with Scotty dogs. Take the world by storm. And let everyone know that you are a St. Margaret's girl—forever.

FORGET YOUR UNIFORM. FORGET FALL EXAMS ARE AROUND THE CORNER. SPIRIT WEEK IS FOR FUN. GIRLS AND TEACHERS ALL WEAR WACKY OUTFITS TO CLASS—BLUE AND GREY, OF COURSE.

Cheering for our JV and varsity sports teams is just one of the ways we show how much we love St. Margaret's—and each other.

ALUMNAE STAY CONNECTED FOR LIFE. Our students will always be St. Margaret's girls. As they go on to college, careers and establish families of their own, they stay in touch with ours. Sharing big news with their advisors and favorite teachers. Keeping up with classmates. Reunions on the River Lawn. Recruiting prospective students. Supporting our Annual Fund, endowment, and capital campaigns. Sponsoring student interns. And networking with one another forever.

THE SMS ALUMNAE ARE A POWERFUL NETWORK.
