

SPIRITUALITY

Will you help me make sense of the world?

SMS IS ONE OF SIX EPISCOPAL
SCHOOLS OWNED
BY THE DIOCESE OF VIRGINIA.

CHURCH SCHOOL? SURPRISINGLY COOL. Chapel is the quiet time before your busy day. To gather in prayer. To make sense of things that sometimes don't. To take part in services that mark special times in the school calendar and in other faiths. Religion classes challenge you to think about what you believe. And when you just need to talk, you can turn to the Chaplain.

ON ST. MARGARET'S DAY, A BAGPIPER LEADS A PROCESSION OF FACULTY AND KILT-CLAD STUDENTS TO A CHURCH SERVICE IN HONOR OF OUR NAMESAKE. A THANKSGIVING DINNER FOLLOWS.

Our chaplain conducts services and religion classes. Topical sermons help girls find meaning in their lives and put world events in perspective.

REINFORCING POSITIVE VALUES. Our chaplain conducts worship services for students, faculty and staff three mornings a week. On Sundays, boarding students either attend a local Episcopal, Methodist, Baptist or Roman Catholic church, or Compline, an evening chapel at the school.

WE PUT FAITH INTO ACTION EVERY DAY.

Three required trimesters of religious studies relate religion to real life. And we practice our commitment to Christian ideals by serving others in the world beyond St. Margaret's.
